

Surrey and Borders Partnership NHS Foundation Trust

Health Action Planning Training

Objectives: Provides an awareness of the historical context of the health care of people with learning disabilities, provides an understanding of the process and implementation of Health Action Planning and provides guidance on creating a Health Action Plan. The training also highlights the importance of a multi-disciplinary approach and service user involvement, providing information on health issues associated with learning disabilities and specific syndromes. It also explores consent and capacity considerations in accordance with the Mental Capacity Act 2005 and the need for reasonable adjustments to be made to ensure equal access to care and the laws governing this.

Who is the training for? Anyone who supports people with learning disabilities within Surrey. This can include; NHS Trust staff, Surrey County Council employees, staff from private providers, Carers, Support workers, Advocates, GP's, Practice Nurses, Health Care Assistants and District Nurses.
